

Enghouse Systems Acquires SimaTech

Acquisition Expands Product Portfolio For The Public Safety & Utilities Sectors

Markham, Ontario; Brondby, Denmark – December 19, 2017 – Enghouse Systems Limited (TSX:ENGH) announced today it has acquired SimaTech A/S of Denmark.

Headquartered in Brondby (near Copenhagen), SimaTech provides products and solutions for the law enforcement, fire and rescue, control room and utilities sectors. SimaTech's turn-by-turn navigation, fleet, asset, and incident management systems focus on bridging cross jurisdictional boundaries and enhanced interoperability and are the preferred choice of the Danish public safety industry.

"With over 40 customers predominantly in the Public Safety and Utilities sectors, SimaTech's solutions and market focus further expand our Public Safety vision and complement our existing solutions," said Brad Cameron, General Manager, Enghouse Transportation. "We are very pleased to welcome SimaTech's customers and employees to the Enghouse Transportation organization."
